PRE-DEPARTURE SERVICES

ADVISING

API staff members happily guide students through the administrative processes of the pre-departure phase of study abroad. Students and their families may contact API staff as often as needed with questions about academics, on-site logistics, visa procedures, housing, classes, and anything else. API staff members, in turn, are frequently in touch with students regarding program updates, essential travel tips, and recommendations for having a successful experience abroad.

INTERNATIONAL PHONE USAGE

All API students receive information about cell phone usage while abroad. API program fees include a variety of options, such as international SIM cards with discounted calling packages or international phones with limited pre-paid minutes.

ORIENTATION MATERIALS AND RESOURCES

All API students receive orientation information to help them prepare for their study abroad session. API students have access to a unique online service, the API Toolbox, which includes orientation materials, diagnostic exams, and language reviews. The Toolbox includes information on logistical details, cultural differences, what students can expect at their host university, health and safety concerns, travel tips, and more. Additionally, in certain locations, API offers pre-departure orientation sessions for students and their families on the home campus.

ALUMNI NETWORK

API can connect prospective program participants with recently returned API alumni. These alumni can share their experience, answer questions, and connect with students pre-departure. Upon their return, API alumni have the opportunity to participate in a number of alumni programming opportunities, including the API Global Leadership Academy.

ON-SITE SERVICES

RESIDENT DIRECTORS/COORDINATORS

API has highly qualified, trained, experienced English-speaking, Resident Directors/Coordinators who are available to students throughout their session abroad. Most Resident Directors/Coordinators are locals from the host country in which students will be studying, and all are ready to provide practical information and insight into the host culture. Resident Directors/Coordinators greet students at the airport, introduce students to the ways of life in their host country, help students to register at the host institution, and support students throughout their stay. They are also available in case of any personal emergency and are ready to implement the API emergency response plans if needed.

AIRPORT RECEPTION

API students are met at the airport and welcomed to their new home by API on-site staff on the program start date.

ON-SITE ORIENTATION

The on-site orientation takes place during the first week of a student's stay. API orientations include city tours as well as practical information about life in the host city, including transportation, safety, and local culture. The orientation is designed to minimize adjustment difficulties upon arrival and gives students a chance to get to know other participants.

TUITION

All programs include a fixed number of credits per term as part of the standard fee. The number of credits that a student can earn each session is detailed on each program page. API encourages students to meet with their advisors to get courses and credits approved prior to departure.

EXCURSIONS

Students have the opportunity to broaden their classroom education through several organized excursions, which are included in the price of the program. Overnight lodging, breakfast, entrance fees, and transportation to and from the excursion locations are included. Excursions are subject to change depending on availability, weather, and other factors.

MEDICAL AND LIFE INSURANCE

Medical and life insurance is provided for all students during the program term. The coverage includes medical evacuation and repatriation, as well as 24-hour support for medical issues.

SOCIAL AND CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

Students are offered monthly API-sponsored social and cultural activities, including outings to movies, concerts, cultural tours, theater performances, museums, outdoor activities, and more. All entrance fees are covered by API. Students also enjoy both welcome and farewell group meals.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Organized by API Resident Directors/Coordinators in many locations, the API Gives Back Project may consist of an ongoing volunteer opportunity or a one-day commitment. The goal of the project is to help API students express their thanks for the welcome they received from the local community.

HOUSING

Housing is included in the program fee.* Depending on the host city, students may choose from various housing options, including host families, apartments, or student dormitories. Students can request single rooms on their housing form for an additional cost, although some sites may have guaranteed single rooms as part of the program fee.

A $275 security deposit is due by the final payment deadline for all programs. A fee of $95 will be retained from all security deposits to cover standard cleaning fees and general maintenance fees, including minor repairs and standard touch-up painting. Housing for most academic year students during the period between the fall and spring semesters is not included in the API program fee. Students can take advantage of this time to return home to the U.S. or to travel around the host country. In most cases, API can arrange between-term housing for students in their host city for an additional fee. Refer to the city information sections or the API website for more specific housing information by location.

*Due to the range of housing options in Australia and New Zealand, housing costs have been separated out from the program fees and are billed separately once the student's housing placement has been confirmed. Please contact the API office at (800) 844-4124 for more information.

FINANCIAL AID & SCHOLARSHIPS FROM HOME INSTITUTION

API accepts institutional and federal financial aid that is processed by the student's home university. Students who plan on using financial aid toward the cost of the study abroad session should meet with their school's financial aid office EARLY! All students, even those who are not currently receiving financial aid, are encouraged to meet with financial aid representatives at their home institution to determine eligibility for scholarships, grants, or loans available during the study abroad term. Some students are even eligible to increase the amount of their financial aid award based on the comparative cost of living abroad. API signs consortium agreements as necessary to ensure that financial aid can be applied to the API program cost.

RE-ENTRY SERVICES

TRANSCRIPT

Upon completion of the academic session, an official transcript from an accredited institution with a letter of translation (if necessary) is sent to each student's home institution. "I could write an entire essay or two on how phenomenal the API program is. The price was wonderful, the program was well structured, and the experience was incomparable. However, what truly separated this program from the others was the staff. Every single member of the API team could not have been more helpful, interested, concerned, pleasant, genuine, patient, kind-hearted, informative, and just fun to be around."

"My Resident Director went above and beyond. She was truly my "mom" away from home and I could not have survived without her abroad! She welcomed us into her home, was available 24/7 for us if we needed, and made sure to be actively involved in our lives here. She is truly an amazing asset to the API team and completely shaped my experience abroad!"

WHY STUDYING ABROAD IS A STEP TOWARDS UNDERSTANDING THE WORLD.

FOR MANY, studying abroad isn't just an opportunity for a change of scenery – it's a door to experiencing a totally different culture. The cool thing is that not only do you get to pick the culture you immerse yourself in, but you also have control over how deep into the culture you go. Every place in the world has a long and intricate history that it doesn't take a single trip to unpack. With that said, I believe that a successful study abroad experience will have you wondering more about the places you visited, and it gives you a deeper appreciation for the diverse and amazing stories in the world.

THIS POST IS FROM OFFICIAL STUDENT BLOGGER, SARAH AL-ARSHANI, WHO IS FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT. SARAH IS A POLITICAL SCIENCE AND JOURNALISM MAJOR STUDYING IN DUBROVNIK, CROATIA.

"I've had the most amazing time and never want to leave. London is the best!"

- Sierra R. / Bennington College

ual: university of the arts london

ONE OF THE TOP 6 UNIVERSITIES IN THE WORLD FOR ART AND DESIGN!

The University of the Arts London is comprised of 6 colleges of art, design, communications, fashion, and the performing arts. The University's 3,000 employees are active professional artists, designers, critics, and theorists that lead the way on creative and experimental practice alongside historical and theoretical analysis. The combination of a varied student group, cutting-edge research, and highly-experienced staff creates a unique, multifaceted learning experience.

INTEGRATED PROGRAMS / APPROXIMATELY 12 SEMESTER CREDITS

Students in an integrated program at UAL will enroll directly alongside local full-time, degree-seeking students. Students are required to work more independently than they may be accustomed to at their home institution. Course content is delivered in a variety of ways, including individual and group tutorials, projects, seminars, lectures, and visits to museums, galleries, and studios.

SEMESTER STUDY ABROAD PROGRAMS FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS / 12-16 SEMESTER CREDITS

These programs are usually 40% integrated with local students and 60% tailored to study abroad students. The teaching is more structured and there is more faculty support than in the integrated programs.

PORTFOLIO ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Most Integrated Programs, and some Semester Study Abroad Programs, require supporting documentation, for example a portfolio, showreel, or piece of written work. Please contact API at (800) 844-4124 or visit apiabroad.com for more info.

HERE'S TO TAKING CHANCES.

MOST IMPORTANTLY THOUGH, I've learned to love the person I've become since coming here. An experience like this – being away from home for so long – it makes you grow up. It makes you grow wiser through inevitable successes and failures. I've learned so much about who I am and who I want to be in these few short months. I've learned to love the details of being alive. Knowing that I have the rare and wondrous privilege to stay and study until June is unspeakably uplifting, because what I've fallen most in love with is the time that I have here.

"As a small town filled with warm and welcoming Sicilians, Taormina felt like home right away. What truly made my experience in Taormina so special however, was the school. FINAL DAYS.
FINAL THOUGHTS.

STUDY ABROAD IS ABOUT LIVING. It's about learning; about opening your eyes to everything around you. To believe in the bigger picture; to believe that one experience can change your whole life. Don't expect me to be able to explain everything that I witnessed and felt while studying abroad in Poland because there is no way that I can express my feelings to the fullest extent. It's enough to know that this experience has changed my life for the better in so many ways. I hope studying abroad means more to you than you imagined it would. Think about your trip abroad and know that it was all worth it.

VIEWING THE WORLD AT LARGE.

WORLD TRAVEL MAKES YOU MODEST.

It shows you how truly small you are and how much there is to explore. Traveling captures your youth and your independence all in one. It pushes your boundaries and puts you in situations that you never dreamed you'd be in. Wandering across new countries reveals your emotions. It leaves you speechless, takes your breath away, and forces you to be humble. This experience has given me a sense of purpose, and I learn more about myself every day. There's a certain strength I am gaining from this journey that I couldn't get from anywhere else. I've never felt more empowered or thankful, and I kid you not, this is nothing less than the adventure of a lifetime.

THIS GUEST POST COMES TO US FROM UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS-LITTLE ROCK STUDENT, REAGAN MARTIN WHO STUDIED ABROAD IN STIRLING, SCOTLAND.

WHAT VALUE DOES API ADD TO THE STUDENT EXPERIENCE?

IT TOOK NO MORE THAN ONE DAY TO DISCOVER THE ANSWER TO THAT QUESTION. THE VALUE ADDED BY THE API EXPERIENCE LIES IN THE TALENTS OF THEIR FABULOUS STAFF!

I strongly believe that the source of API's success is its people. It's the staff that makes API Buenos Aires so very worth it. I left Buenos Aires confident that I could send any of my students to Buenos Aires and they would be safe, happy, and cared for. Not only that, but they'd have a once-in-a-lifetime study abroad experience that would be worth every single penny and more. You can put a price on many things, but Carmen and Gaby are truly priceless. I feel very fortunate to have the ability to vouch for that firsthand.

LA TROBE UNIVERSITY

CLASSES TAUGHT IN ENGLISH / 3-4 SEMESTER CREDITS / 2.5 MINIMUM G.P.A.

SUBJECT OFFERING Photography

This is a photography program consisting of three weeks of workshops and a five day outback tour during mid-June to early-July (Australian Winter). During the Outback tour, an Aboriginal guide will help students understand the cultural specifics of place and space. At the end of the program, participants will exhibit their photography in a major regional art gallery, and many will go on to sell their artwork. Additionally, student's work will be featured in a university-sponsored publication.

The program is based in the city of Mildura, which is situated between Melbourne, Sydney, and Adelaide. Mildura is a charming oasis by the Murray River, at the center of a large agricultural region that spreads over parts of Victoria, South Australia, and New South Wales. The area is often referred to as the Mediterranean in the Outback, with its picturesque citrus groves and vineyards, endless sunshine, and the cosmopolitan feel of a larger city.

While on the program, students visit unique and beautiful locations including Mungo National Park, which is the focal point of the Willandra Lakes World Heritage Area. This park is home to kangaroos, emus, and goannas as well as the endangered Yellow Footed Rock Wallaby. Dotted throughout the overhangs and rock faces is an array of Aboriginal rock art, evidence of continuous occupation of the area for more than 8,000 years. Students will also visit the mining town of Broken Hill, whose 'Line of Lode' is the largest single source of lead, silver, and zinc ore ever discovered on Earth.

I PROMISE YOU WON'T REGRET IT.

WHAT WOULD YOU TELL SOMEONE WHO IS CONSIDERING THE EDGE OF THE OUTBACK PROGRAM? You don't have to love photography to join the program because in the end, you'll learn to enjoy it. It's peaceful and it opens your eyes to see what's around you. Go into the program with an open mind about culture and making new friends. You won't regret the outcome. In the program, you'll experience the real Outback. I valued having, "a real Australia experience" because I learned about Aboriginals and their home, how they survived, and how it was taken away from them. You'll also learn to appreciate the land much more after this experience. I don't want to say too much, because then I will be spoiling your wild adventure! I promise you won't regret it.

TEACH/WORK/VOLUNTEER PROGRAMS

API's Teach, Work, and Volunteer Programs are designed to transform the lives and perspectives of our participants through their service and commitment to local communities. Our programs provide enriching cross-cultural experiences that foster increased self-knowledge, cultural sensitivity and understanding of the global nature of our contemporary world.

WHY PARTICIPATE IN A TEACH, WORK OR VOLUNTEER PROGRAM?

Many of our participants have studied and traveled abroad before, and are looking for an opportunity to embark on a new adventure! Although it's always fun to visit a country as a tourist, traveling abroad to teach, work or volunteer often holds a deeper meaning for our participants. Your experience is purpose-driven, and enables you to contribute to the local community, while at the same time enjoying many benefits:

- broadening your perspective through cultural immersion
- developing professional or technical skills
- improving "soft skills" (communication, leadership, etc.)
- increasing language proficiency
- enhancing your resume with a unique experience
- forming professional connections and networking
